

Jointly hosted by:
NIHR BioResource for Translational Research
Cambridge Rare Disease Network

NHS
National Institute for Health Research

Rare Disease Day Cambridge Lecture

Thursday 28 February 2019 from 6.00pm to 7.30pm

An evening with Cambridge researchers to talk about rare disease research - All welcome

Mark Rare Disease Day with us...

Featured Speakers

Dr Jagtar Singh Nijjar
NIHR Clinical Lecturer in Rheumatology at the University of Cambridge

Prof Ken Smith
Professor of Medicine and Head of the Department of Medicine at the University of Cambridge

Dr Isabelle Delon
Clinical Scientist at the EMEE Genomic Laboratory

Dr Tomasz Matys
Lecturer and Honorary Consultant in Radiology at the University of Cambridge

How to Book:

Please register on Eventbrite or at <https://bit.ly/2TYED2B>

Contact Georgina Norris
Tel: 01223 254608
gan23@medschl.cam.ac.uk with any queries

Programme:

- Rare disease research talks
- A Q&A session
- Networking
- Nibbles and Drinks

Venue:

William Harvey Lecture Theatre,
School of Clinical Medicine,
Addenbrookes Hospital,
Cambridge,
CB2 0SP

Doors open at 5.30pm, a drinks reception will follow the talks until 8.00pm